Latest facts on Hancock's economic status

Studying up-dated Economic Development Plan for Hancock County, released at meeting last Friday, are, from left, Port Leuders, chairman of county development organization; Bent 4 Supervisor-elect J.C. Maffray, County D.O. Swords, executive secretary of organization.

Supervisors-elect Russell J. Elliott and Joseph Cuevas. Booklet shows 1965 population of county was 18,487 against 14,039 in 1960, or 18.8 per cent gain. It also finds persons 45 years and older constitute almost half of working force here. See story on Page 7-A.

From Yates & Patterson

Low airport bid runs under price estimate

A bid substantially under the estimated cost of construction on the new airport proved a pleasant surprise to members of the Port and Harbor Commission and others who attended the commission's meeting Tuesday morning when bids were opened.

Yates & Patterson, Inc., of Jackson, bid $514,694.97 for the base construction. The engineers' estimate was $670,421.89. On alternate plan No. 1 the bid was $231,818.30, that estimate was $270,600.25; alternate plan No. 2, bid was $327,857.90, estimate $333,600.55. Either Alternate No. 1 or 2 is to be added to the base construction cost.

Two other firms bid on the contract, Mid-South Paving Co. of Meridian and Hyde Construction Corp., of Jackson, but Yates & Patterson was undoubtedly low.

All bids were referred to the commission's engineers, Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., for tabulation. A representative of the firm, Gordon Garretson, said a recommendation should be submitted to commission members within a week. The proposed contract calls for completion of construction within 270 calendar days after issuance of a work order.

A spokesman for the commission said there should be no delay in starting construction of the airport as money is available up to at least the amount of the engineer's estimate. It is to be financed on a matching fund basis with the Federal Aviation Agency and part of a bond issue already sold.

Difference in the two alternatives, he said, is that No. 1 calls for ditch and unclassified excavation, which would probably be on-site fill, while No. 2 specifies, among other things, 65,823 cubic yards of select fill conforming with the latest revision of the FAA soil classification - E-6 or better. This would be placed under the

News Briefs

Cross-check is on of city voter rolls

TO ELECTION BOARD

Robert Morreale has been appointed by the City Commission to fill the vacancy created by the death of Earl Charles Traut. With the other commissioners, Eugene E. Davis and Vincent J. Blazza, he will be responsible for conducting the bond issue referendum next Saturday.

TOYS FOR NEEDY

Persons having unwanted toys are asked to bring them to the Welfare Department in the Agriculture Building on New Case Avenue where members of the St. Stanislaus confraternity of the Sacred Heart will pick them up, bring them to the school for repairs, and return them to the Welfare Department to deliver them to addresses given by the department. Brother Henry, confraternity moderator, announced.

K.C. YULE PARTY

Members are asked to bring a covered dish to the K.C. Auxiliary business session and Christmas party, 8 p.m. Wednesday at the K.C. Hall.

ROWLEY CHOSEN

W. M. Rowley of Waveland has been elected president of the International House in New Orleans for 1968, the house's 25th anniversary year.

IN OUTSTANDING WOMEN

Mrs. Joseph Kersanac of B Street has been elected to appear in the 1967 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America for her contributions and accomplishments in civic endeavors, religious, professional and political activities. Local women's clubs submit nomination each year and a different group is chosen annually.

MEN'S CLUB SUPPER

Modern Men's Club of Waveland will have a stuffed crab supper from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday night with Christmas baskets for the needy. Only take-out service will be available at Waveland Town Hall at 511 1/2 St. Louis.

CHAMBER DINNER

Plans for the annual chamber meeting and dinner at the hotel under way and the date has been set as yet but it will probably be late in January. Arnes Kergosien, Hancock County chamber of commerce president, last elected last year.

NEW DOCTOR'S OFFICE

Dr. Charles J. Cox has moved into his new office building at 644 Dumbur Ave. He formerly was on Carroll Avenue.

A check of Bay St. Louis' registration books is now under way by the Council-Manager plan of government committee to determine what course it will pursue since its petition for an election in the question failed.

E. J. Marengo, chairman, said the qualified voters on the city books are being copied so the committee can make its own examination to determine whether the petitions actually filed had sufficient qualified signers.

Depending on the outcome, Marengo said the committee will decide whether to seek additional signatures on the petitions or to pursue the matter through the courts. At any rate, he observed, it will take at least a week or two for the committee to conduct its own "purge" of the names on the petitions.

Only one shoot due for S-II-3

The S-II-4, second stage booster for the Saturn V Apollo rocket, now undergoing pre-test check-out at Mississippi Test Facility, will only undergo one full duration test firing early in 1968.

This, in contrast with previous static firing on this stage, is due to an increased confidence in the booster and its capabilities.

The move comes after the successful firing of the first Saturn V rocket from Cape Kennedy and the two snagless test firings of the S-II-3, now being prepared for shipment from the base to the Cape. The S-II-3 was given two full duration six minute shots at MTF on Sept. 19 and 27.

In initial S-II firings at MTF the stage was given one or two short shots prior to being fired for its full time capability. The S-II-3 got two full duration firings without any test-type shots and the S-II-4 will only be scheduled for one shot.

Testing out hydraulic and mechanical systems, stresses and strains, the S-II-3 and second version of the Saturn V first stage booster is also in the test stand at MTF. This is a non-firing version of the stage and employed solely to conduct various essential systems checks prior to arrival of the next live stage, the S-II-6, whose shipping date from California has not yet been announced.

The petition calling for an election on whether Bay St. Louis should convert to the council-manager form of government is 150 signatures short of the required 20 per cent of the electorate to require a vote on the question.

That's what City Clerk J. Cyril Glover certified to Mayor John A. Scafide Monday morning at the conclusion of the 10 days permitted by state law to check the petition.

Mayor Scafide promptly certified Glover's findings and returned the documents to E. J. Marengo, chairman of the council-manager form of government committee who had presented the petition Dec. 1.

The committee claimed 1,004 qualified voters had signed the petition, but the city found only 1,002 names. Glover's canvass certified only 556 signatures. Of a total registration in the city's three precincts of 3,428, 20 per cent would amount to 686 which left the petition 130 short.

Under the check 446 names were removed. Of those, 308 were found not registered on the city's books; 70 appeared to be signed in the same handwriting and more than that were doubtful. There were 20 illegible signatures, two had died since signing, one name was printed, 25 were duplicates and listed on more than one page and 25 persons removed their names.

From noon Monday until about 4 p.m., seven more persons had gone to City Hall and signed statements asking that their names be removed on roll.

The mayor received two letters from W. J. Coleman, assistant to Attorney-General T. Patterson, clarification on several legal points involved in

Board told need of port director

The board of supervisors got a full-dress report from the consulting engineers on the port and harbor commission's Mullet Bayou development at its meeting Monday and appeared to find everything in good order.

Complaints were dismissed when I. S. Stockstill, contractor for the access road and clearing and grubbing the port area, did not appear. Supervisor Dolph Kellar observed that Stockstill had voiced dissatisfaction over progress on the work and his failure to attend indicated no real basis for his allegations.

The session, attended by several port commissioners, gave them an opportunity to cite the need for employment of a port director.

Dr. A. K. Martinovich, Jr., heat member of the committee, suggested talk of running behind schedule on the job was superfluous since his group has no industry or individual as yet to display the facilities to. He asserted that a port director should have been hired a year ago and urged the incoming supervisors to prod the port commission to do so. Professional supervision also is needed to promote the new airport, Martinovich declared.

Cecil Palmer of Michoud Baker, Jr., Inc., consulting engineers for the port, underscored the need for a professional port director in subsequent remarks. He cited various promotion mediums available.

There have been applicants for the post but Martinovich indicated no real basis for his

Engineer explains estimate

Joseph G. Richard, Baton Rouge consulting engineer whose firm prepared street paving and drainage plans, assures public meeting Tuesday his estimates should be well within $375,000 called for in two bond issues. After consulting with State Highway Department on local work he calculated eight percent increase in construction costs from 1967 to 1968.

Rotary endorses city bond issue

With slightly more than a 2 to 1 majority the proposed Bay St. Louis street improvement bond issue resolved at a meeting of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club. The vote, taken at the luncheon meeting yesterday, was 19 for and 8 against with about 15 abstentions. Rotary thus became the first civic group to endorse the bond issue.

Powell Glass, Jr., brought up the question explaining that this was the last chance Rotary would have to express its opinion before the Dec. 23 vote on the bond issue.

William H. Friable, in opposition to the move, expressed concern at the cost to the municipality, a view also voiced by Dr. Walter Russo, Norton Haas, Jr., attempted to delay action by suggesting that a committee look into the proposition. On the other side, T. J. Garner reported that after attending the public meeting on the subject the preceding evening, he was in favor of the street construction program.

Entertainment at the luncheon was provided by Bay High's choir under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Tedford, Jr. The student group drew expression of acclaim from the listeners.

Citizens query paving, drainage plans

Between 75 and 100 citizens turned out for meeting Tuesday night at Bay Junior High School to hear how Bay St. Louis' two street paving and drainage bond issues will be used. Above Paul Raynaud poses question to Mayor John A. Scafide. Session lasted two hours. Joseph L. Marochino, chairman of citizens' advisory committee who presided, asked observers for any spectators interested in active support of issues to volunteer their services and signed up five new volunteers.

Schools slate holiday programs

Spirit of Christmas will be spotlight in schools of Hancock County during the week for days as students prepare for their annual season recitals.

Senior High School will have traditional choral recital 7:30 p.m. today in the auditorium. Taking part are the mixed chorus, girls' and boys' ensembles, mixed solo and boys' ensemble. Toy Todford, director, will be in the choir. The public is invited.

Musical program under direction of Richard Ford, director, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. today at 2:30 p.m. Monday and classes will be closed for the holidays at 11 a.m. All schools in the city will be closed from that date.

St. Stanislaus High School will have its Yule program at 8 p.m. Sunday in St. Rosenthal gym.

St. Augustine Seminary will have its Yule program at 8 p.m. Sunday in the school cafeteria with students from the fifth through eighth grades portraying Christmas in four different cultures.

St. Rose de Lima School will have its Yule program at 8 p.m. Sunday in St. Rosenthal gym.

Christ Episcopal Day School's program at 8 p.m. next Thursday in St. Joseph Academy auditorium will be open to the public.

Teen Times

As Christmas holidays are all but upon us, the usual functions step up the pace at local schools. Bands have scheduled concerts, but the only date we've been given is that of the Bay High band which will perform in the new gymnasium at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

One of the larger events of the weekend was state band clinic at the Eggenwater Golf Hotel Friday and Saturday, climaxed with a concert by those winning first chairs during examination. A large number from the Bay took in the Saturday doings, but Terry Ross was the only Bay High band member in actual competition. We'll give a list of those who made the state elsewhere in the column as the 11th is still going on as a large teen times.

Jack Little, Brian Wheeler and Richard Tracy, unfortunately postponed taking their college entrance exams until February, but a situation of their own. The three were enroute to Hattiesburg where they planned to spend the night and arise bright and early to take the tests, when they struck a utility pole on Interstate 55 while driving in heavy fog. Chuck, whose little blue automobile was demolished, suffered lacerations and head bruises. Richard had lacerations and back and neck injuries and lacerations. His left shoulder and fractured finger. Chuck was given emergency treatment at Stidell Hospital Friday night, and as of Wednesday, Hiram and Richard were still under treatment in Stidell.

Tom Mayfield, U.S. Marine Corps, is enroute home from Vietnam and should arrive any day now. He'll be brother-in-law to the best man when he and Karen Jensen wed in Stidell, La., on Jan. 2.

Another wedding is of interest to what is now pretty much the college set. Many will remember Donna Wiggins as a very talented dancer when she attended Christ Episcopal Day School and Bay High. Donna and Barry Stephens, also a graduate of Bay High, and more recently the U.S. Navy, were married in Pascagoula on Sunday.

Bert Klempner is back at Fort Mead, Md., after several weeks of "war games" in the wilds of upper New York state. He drove an armed personnel carrier in the convoy returning to camp in temperatures of freezing and below. Bert says thanks are O.K., but misses Waveland like mad. (Probably a pretty blonde named Martha adds to his homesickness.)

His younger brother, Frank is working hard for the title of Junior Great White Hunter. He was tugged by a bull on his most recent hunting trip, but finally returned home with a duck that was of the table variety.

Sherrill Michaelson and Cathie Crider are once again in bandages. We can't decide which of the two has been most mentioned on our sicklist in the past few months.

The Blues Inventions will play for the Catholic Youth Organization Christmas dance at Our Lady of the Gulf Cafeteria from 8 until 11:30 p.m. Saturday night. Donation is $1.25.

Jewell Tiemann, a freshman at Dominican College in the Crescent City, earned herself another acting honor by winning the silver Louie Award as best actress of the '66-67 Little Theater season for her performance in the title role in Anastasia.

And from Darome Darome comes the information that Daisy made his girl the happiest around last Sunday afternoon. Donnie keeps the phone wires hot between here and the Pass each weekend. Pam is the one on the other end of the line, but is no her real reason for the big smile she's been wearing?

More steady twosomes are Terri and Janel, D.D. and

F.C., Mary Helen and Steve and Linda and Clay.

Tom missed out of a great big party over the weekend. He was too busy observing "Boom Boom" day.

Terri Minich sends all of her love buddies a great big hello, Virginia style.

Edna Edna and Bob, and Jeanette and Mike appear to be having great times together.

Darome Darome, Pam and Susan had planned a big "going away" party for Moll's car, but the celebration failed to materialize.

"Wah Fare" and his companion made quite a time of it in F.K. and J.P. Sunday afternoon.

Who has a present all neatly wrapped for George?

There's still some question as to whom is now in possession of Billy Football's watch???

Bay High students got school pictures last week and the usual round of swapping began.

Someone wonders what ever happened to Bobby Bat?

Picky Flowers scored two bulls eyes on a single card in American Legion sponsored rifle practice Saturday morning.

Former Echo employee, John Niehaus, now a member of Uncle Sam's Navy, is spending a 15-day leave with his family in New Orleans. John dropped in to see friends in the Bay on Saturday.

Does K.M. know who his new lover is yet?

Diamond lodge

Adams heads Masons

Joel B. Adams was elected worshipful master of the Diamond Lodge No. 393, F&AM, at its annual meeting Monday night at the Masonic Temple in Hattiesburg.

James E. Randall was chosen senior warden, Glenn Dorr, junior warden, Leroy L. Hall, treasurer, Whitman Rayburn, Tyler and Percy J. Gaudin, steward, Henry L. Otis was re-elected secretary. Chandler Reynolds was appointed senior deacon, and Kenneth Caron, junior deacon.

Installation of these officers will be at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday Dec. 27, with families and friends of the officers-elect as well as members of other lodges invited.

Fredericks

is awarded

medal by AF

Master Sgt. Isiah Fredericks, whose mother, Mrs. Maggie F. Louis lives in Poyune, has received the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Lowry AFB, Colo.

He was decorated for meritorious service while assigned as a fire protection supervisor at Ubon Royal Thai AFB, Thailand. He was cited for his outstanding ability and leadership which contributed to the success of his unit's mission in Southeast Asia.

The sergeant, now at Lowry, is with a unit of the Air Training Command.

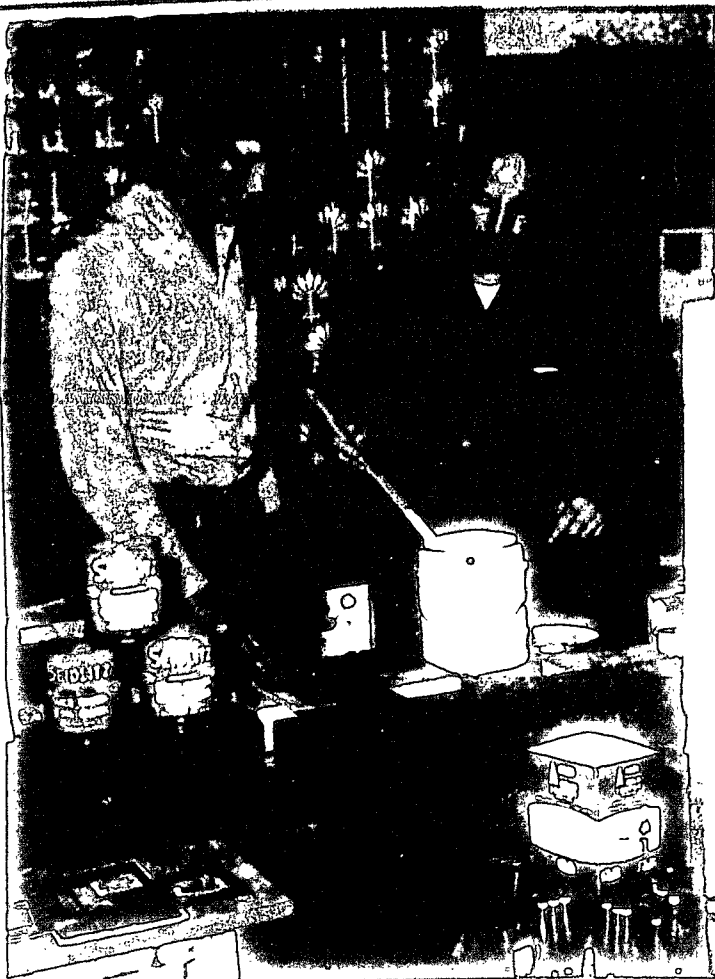

A graduate of George W. Carver High School, he attended Straight College in New Orleans, and the University of Maryland European Division. Sergeant Fredericks also studied at the University of Missouri.

His wife, Frances, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Manning of Poyune.

His father, Leonard Fredericks, resides in Kiln.

KILN CAR WASH

A car wash, sponsored by Christian Cadet Corps, Annunciation School, to purchase school basketball uniforms, will operate from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, at Kiln Postoffice.

On the job training

Bay Senior High School conducted its first job training session last week. The students, supervised by Mr. Tommie Sines, spent time in various local businesses to gain practical experience. The program is designed to help students understand the demands of the workforce and develop necessary skills.

Hancock yields

38 deer so far

Hancock County has yielded 38 deer killed during the first half of the 1967-68 season. The county is currently in the midst of a hunting season, and the number of deer killed is expected to increase as the season progresses.

A quarter century in office

Mayor Fairfield Lathrop of Waveland is toasted on his 25th anniversary in office last Tuesday night by town's board of directors and other officials. From left are Aldermen John Longo, Jr., Herman Yarborough, Clerk C. Dufour, Mayor Lathrop, Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois who celebrated 17 years in office same day, Attorney Lucien M. Cox, Jr., and Alderman Albert Grass.

Charities are not proper recipients

The Jackson Daily Express, the Clarion Ledger and the Daily News, are planning a Mississippi progress edition marking the inauguration of John Bell Williams as governor. With a weather-eve our for Sunday, these newspapers are seeking advertisements in the special edition from groups of citizens, businesses and probably from municipalities.

In an event they sought an ad from the Hancock County Board of Supervisors for one-fourth page at $250, one-half page at $400, and one full page at $700. The board of supervisors refused the request.

Two supervisors are inclined to support progress through advertisements that are no benefit to the county, and even through direct gifts to the county. The present scheme was for the benefit of the newspaper's treasury as distinguished from the county's. Scour or the softball league. On the other hand, there might be more gain to the county from this advertisement than from advertisements in school annuals or programs, and the board may even have remembered that Hancock County voted for William Winter over Williams.

Anyhow, the supervisors made a start in turning down such pleas for funds. We only hope the board taking over in January will carry this concept further and not give the taxpayers money to this form of advertising or give to even the most worthwhile of charities. The taxpayers should expect this.

Holidays provide dangerous driving

It is always somewhat of a bore to write editorials about highway safety. They just don't seem to do any good and traffic fatalities rise and rise.

It seems to us that highway accidents on US 90 are running at a higher level than at any time during the nine years we've been here. We don't have the facts and figures to back up this impression but on Mississippi highways last weekend there were 17 fatalities. Whether this is a new record for a non-holiday week end, we don't know, but we don't remember a worse week end. And remember, this was a non-holiday week end. We will have two long weekends that will be holidays over Christmas and New Year's. If the carnage keeps up with last weekend, the merry in Merry Christmas will be wiped out for many people and Happy New Year will not be seen by another group.

The Highway Safety Patrol several weeks ago was given orders to enforce traffic laws strictly. The patrol was told to accept no excuses, hand out the tickets. Advance warning of this may curb many drivers. We hope so.

We recommend that only those with a real reason go on highways during Christmas and New Year's. For those who do drive, drive defensively.

LBJ hits men with low blow

It is common knowledge that the male of the species has little real power. In the political field there are more women than men. In business fields it is the women who spend far the most money and control the most money. In the social realm her "dominance" is even more marked.

In fact, about only thing in our social code that even recognizes the male is the fact that in our marriage service when the minister asks "who gives this girl in matrimony?" it is the father, not the mother, who puffs out his chest and replies "I do."

Now comes President Lyndon B. Johnson Saturday and replies "her MOTHER and I".

Traitor, traitor, traitor.

Postmaster Andy Becker has his problems. Between Christmas mailings running late and the Postoffice Department's austerly bent, he can't afford much extra help or calling in regulars on overtime. And remember, whether you expect something or are sending. Postoffices generally will be closed Christmas Eve day because it's a Sunday.

"A Conservative View"

by James J. Kilpatrick

WASHINGTON - The National Science Foundation now has settled upon the boyish head of Stephen Smale as a new grant of $87,500 in public funds. For another two years, the taxpayers of America thus will be subsidizing the summer vacations of this pacifist mathematician whose abiding avocation is to give aid and comfort to America's enemies in Vietnam. It is, in truth, a far more lively life.

How did this happen? How did the taxpayers get into subsidizing the summer vacations in the first place? And why this particular mathematician?

In the old days, the money was that Congress lawfully could appropriate public funds only for purposes enumerated in the Constitution. In Smale's research has nothing whatever to do with raising an army, maintaining a navy, regulating commerce, coining money, or laying taxes. He breathes the rarefied air of pure research. He deals in ordinary and partial differential equations and the relation between topology and particle physics. Where do you find that in the Constitution?

No one doubts that Smale is a brilliant fellow. In 1966 he received the Fields medal, sometimes described as the Nobel prize in mathematics, for his theorem on the mapping of a sphere. When it comes to differential topology, he apparently is the best there is. At 37, he holds a full professorship at Berkeley, and Berkeley pays him well.

Neither is there any doubt about Smale's left-wing activism. As an undergraduate at the University of Michigan, 15 years ago, he was a member of the old Labor Youth League, a Communist front. At Berkeley, he became faculty advisor to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. He embraced the Free Speech Movement. He was a co-founder, with the notorious Jerry Rubin, of the Vietnam Day Committee. He is an inveterate signer of protest petitions.

If this were the whole of the story, conservatives and liberals alike could defend Smale's rights of free speech, and agree that his political views ought not to have any effect, one way or another, on his eligibility for a federal grant. Okay, Smale has gone farther. In his capacity as a co-chairman of the Vietnam Day Committee, he proposed in May of 1965 that thousands of students and others block the gates of the Oakland army terminal. Also, "we might consider the en masse breaking of the Espionage Act of 1917 and the Selective Service Act."

In August of 1965, Smale led a company of demonstrators who attempted to block troop trains at the Santa Fe Station in Berkeley. Earlier, Smale had urged that "we must put OUR bodies on the line," but when the train came down the tracks he chickened. His prodigious brain informed him that the body of Stephen Smale and the wheels of a locomotive

Letters to the editor are always welcome. They should be on pertinent topics, in good taste and limited to 300 words. The Sea Coast Echo requires also that each letter be properly signed by the writer before it will be considered for publication. No letters assigned to non-paying pseudonyms will be published.

As others see it

Arctic genocide

We wonder if Canadians really know or care about what the Department of Northern Affairs and Natural Resources is doing to the Eskimo. We have always had the vague understanding that the Eskimo was a Canadian and had the rights we all enjoy in this nation. What has come to light in recent months, however, is that the Eskimo is no more than a laboratory rat in this advanced age of Christian democracy in Canada.

The government has launched a bold experiment in social engineering, aimed at wiping out these natives of our north. Whether they like it or not, Eskimo parents are being forced to send their children - sometimes hundreds of miles - to white man's Christian boarding schools. Here the children are kept for the better part of the year. They learn from the white man's books, they learn his ways, customs and habits. The skills needed for these children to survive as adults in the arctic are forgotten.

His only chance for survival is to become integrated into the white man's society. This he is being forced to do, whether he wants to or not. Soon the Eskimo communities in the Canadian north will have no young people to hunt, fish and provide for their parents. Soon there will be no parents. Soon there will be no Eskimos. The ration of Eskimo to civil servant in the Canadian north is at present 4 to 1. Soon there will be 15,000 civil servants and no Eskimos to administer.

Within two or three generations we are attempting to obliterate a race from the stone age to the atomic age. We don't think it can, or should be done. Our contention is that the Eskimo has known for a couple of hundred years that the white man was down in Canada's south. If he had liked the white man's way of life or his climate he would have migrated.

We wonder if we will be noted in history as the generation that brought about the extinction of the Canadian Eskimo? "Alleged missionaries" might be a good way to describe us.

Lyndon ponders cabinet loyalty

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON - President Johnson's Kennedy brothers that he is considering about the Kennedy holdovers who remain in his cabinet. The draw that finally broke the President's discovery that the Kennedy brothers had been in the cabinet since the disclosure that Robert Kennedy was resigning. This was what he referred to as stories spread by "the press."

Five Kennedy-appointed cabinet members are in the Kennedy family. One of them, the brother of the President, is in the cabinet. The other four are in the cabinet. The President is considering whether to keep them or not.

Postmaster General Larry O'Brien has been in the Kennedy family. The President is considering whether to keep him or not. The Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has not backed off any from the Kennedy family. The Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udell has been in the Kennedy family. The President is considering whether to keep him or not.

McCarthy challenge. LBJ, in the presence of Mrs. Johnson, recently intimates, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk, definitely did not intend to run for re-election. He promised, however, that he would try to conduct a convention and use his influence to back the Vice President Humphrey.

The President said he would like to resign but he felt this would be improper and would only backfire. In any event, he predicted that Humphrey would be elected President of the United States.

However, Johnson made his statement before McCarthy challenged him by announcing his plans to run for the President in state Democratic primaries. He said enough to make LBJ change his mind. Meanwhile, Democratic leaders have taken around the nation to determine how much damage McCarthy may do to the President.

They have concluded that in most states McCarthy is able to get between 20 and 30 per cent of the vote. In California he stands a chance of actually causing the party to be badly splintered. More than 90 per cent of the party leaders, behind the President, even Sen. Ted Kennedy, McCarthy to stay out of the Massachusetts primary cause Kennedy is for Johnson, but become McCarthy. However, when leaders of the peace organizations withdraw their financial support unless McCarthy withdraws, he reluctantly agreed to do so.

Smooth Marine

Capt. Charles Robb has married into the most family in the nation, no easy plunge for a young man. His father-in-law is one of the most dynamic businessmen in the nation and his new bride is something of a dynamite herself.

The average new husband faced with a combination nationwide publicity and persuasiveness might be seen and not heard. But the other day Chuck Robb, facing a battery of reporters, showed that he knows how to handle a ducked only one real question, namely what he thought of his father-in-law's new bride. He said, "I would just prefer not to comment on this."

But when asked about the qualities he admired in her, he was eloquent. "The first thing that would strike any man's eye in beauty," he said, "this naturally is one of the things in her. She has a very keen mind. She is very intelligent. She has a wonderful sense of humor. She is a very warm person - just a pleasure to be with."

De Gaulle to strike again

The American Embassy has warned that President De Gaulle is preparing another raid on the dollar. He plans to use $335 million that flooded into Paris from London, the devaluation of the British pound and will demand the U.S. Treasury redeem the dollars for gold at $35 a dollar.

As a result, several angry Congressmen, led by Rep. of Indiana and Rep. Lester Wolf of New York, are pushing through a law forbidding the redemption of dollars from France until the $6 billion French debt has been repaid.

Other Congressmen contend that since De Gaulle cleared economic war upon the United States as shown by seizing French assets in this country and boycotting European nations. However, other important attempts to curtail the dollar. They realize that the West's monetary system is on the dollar, and that an attack on the dollar could have all through the Western world.

Consequently, 14 Western nations have joined in a "De Gaulle" sabotage. They are helping to keep the dollar through operations of the International Gold Fund by exchanging their own currencies for dollars. The International Settlements Bank at Basle, Switzerland, is in the background of official disapproval of any action against France is the fact that the U.S. exports far more to France than it imports from France. For example, we bought $700 million worth of French goods, but sold $1 billion worth of U.S. goods to France. So if the U.S. takes any official action to curb French sales to the U.S., De Gaulle could hit back effectively.

HNC again chosen as fitness center

Hancock North Central Elementary School has been notified by Aikman Capt. James A. Lovell, USN, consultant to President Johnson on physical fitness, that the school has been selected to serve as a state demonstration center again this year.

This is the second such honor from the school for their physical fitness program. Under the over-all guidance of Mrs. Earl Ramez, principal, and direct management of Miss Trillipha Cerven, third grade teacher, the program is progressing along the lines of the Presidential Council on Physical Fitness. It was initiated of the school during the year under direction of Principal Fuller, then principal. Materials regarding the program of physical fitness, systems of measurement, and the state department of education, was given to the school. A demonstration center is a school selected to show other schools how to conduct a physical fitness program. Lovell, in his letter, said that the school has been chosen for its quality and the program of physical fitness. The school has been chosen for its quality and the program of physical fitness. # VOTE YES

DECEMBER 23rd

Bay St. Louis now has the basic foundation for developing into the healthy, attractive, progressive and prosperous community it should be.

We now have modern and adequate sewerage and water systems completed and underground. Our major challenge has been overcome. Now, let's finish the job.

With the advice and assistance of the Citizen's Advisory Committee, a street improvement and drainage program has been developed which we feel is adequate and within our means, without resulting in a prohibitive or unbearable tax burden.

To finance a $975,000 bond issue will require an additional tax levy of not more than 7.5 mills, or $7.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. It is estimated that the average homeowner's assessment is $2,000. This means an increase of $15.00 per year in taxes for the average homeowner.

The Citizen's Advisory Committee, after careful study, recommended this course of action rather than the more elaborate and expensive combination "front-foot assessment and additional tax levy" approach.

VOTE YES ON DECEMBER 23RD!

The difficulty with Stockstill apparently stemmed from engineers' specifications calling for using material from the ditches to build up the access road and only in a few instances to go to the borrow pit.

Donald Landry, port president, commented that the commission could have answered a lot of the questions from the supervisors without being bypassed. The board had called directly on the engineering and contractors for an accounting on work progress.

Before recessing until next Monday, the board approved a $100 ad in the Mississippi Jaycees Junior Miss pageant program, declined to advertise in the Jackson newspapers for the Williams inauguration and progress edition, and approved a five-year ad valorem tax exemption for Club Motor Lodge Inn. This now goes to the Agricultural and Industrial Board for final action.

A citation was received from the State Veterans Affairs Commission commending Edward A. Fayard for his work as veterans service officer of the last 25 years.

Petition...

event of a change in the type of government.
To whether incumbents hold over until the end of their terms, Coleman cited Sec. 3825.5-04 of the state code. This provides that all elected officials of a city or town holding office when the council-manager plan is adopted shall continue in office until expiration of their respective terms.

On whether the incumbents appoint a city manager, he noted further along in Sec. 3825.5-15 that the first city council elected under this act shall at its first meeting employ by majority vote of all its members a city manager who shall be the chief administrative officer of the city.

"It will be seen that it is not the elected officials holding office at the time the council-manager plan is adopted that appoint the city manager but it is the first city council elected under the council-manager plan that employs the city manager," the assistant attorney general noted.

It is also his opinion that Sec. 3825.5-03 means that on the third Tuesday after adoption of the manager plan, elected officials serving at that time may begin steps toward an orderly transition from the prior form of government.

"All previous opinions, including the one rendered by Honorable Jim True (Harrison County legislator) on Nov. 1, 1967, in each respect in which the same is in conflict with this opinion, are hereby withdrawn and overruled," Coleman concluded.

Paul W. Sage of General Electric and Henry F. Auter, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, both of Bay St. Louis, have been appointed to the Engineering Advisory Committee of Mississippi State University.

Cary fans ooh, aah at GoGo

Mike GoGo Nersise astounded everyone in this area when he was playing for Bay High but we sort of got used to it.

Now he's starting all over again at William Cary College, leading the Crusaders to an 88-75 victory over Pensacola Navy station in Cary's opening game last Tuesday in Clinton Gymnasium.

The story can be told by a man who saw the game, Regiel Napper, sports editor of the Hattiesburg American. He wrote: "Mike GoGo was hit 16 or 21 from the field and 16 of 12 from the free throw line for 42 points, pulled down 15 rebounds, tipped for either team, blocked a half dozen shots, made a like number of steals and recorded several assists."

Airport bid...

proposed paved areas and 10 feet on each side.
Briefly, the proposed construction includes a 4,700-foot runway, 175 feet wide, connecting taxiway, terminal apron, approach clearing, perimeter fence, segmented circle, wind cone, marking and other miscellaneous items.

Mrs. South's bid with Alternative No. 1 was $878,440.00, No. 2, $905,430.28, Hyde Construction, No. 1, $841,658.87, No. 2, $929,070.72, Yates & Patterson, No. 1, $746,513.27, No. 2, $842,552.87.

Present were commission president Donald H. Landry, members John A. Scafield, Edward Schambach and Elliot Casanova, members of the present board of supervisors, Dolph Kellar, Charles Lavinghouse, and H.G. Dean, incoming members Charles A. Russ, III, Russell Elliott, attorney Mike Haas, representatives of Michael Baker and others.

The commission recessed until 7:30 p.m. today.

Paul W. Sage of General Electric and Henry F. Auter, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, both of Bay St. Louis, have been appointed to the Engineering Advisory Committee of Mississippi State University.

At full strength 40-membering executives serve on the committee formed to advise on programs of instruction, research and extension at the college.

In addition the committee serve as liaison between the University's college of Engineering and state industry.

Ann Williams leads Jones squad scoring

Valena Jones' lightning won their sixth round game of the season Tuesday night defeating the Jones 43-29 in Jones City.

The junior varsity won their fourth straight victory, Richton 19-9 but the Tigers lost all they could do with Richton's varsity, defending SMA champions, and lost 86-13, the first time the century mark has been broken in the county this year.

The new board is scheduled to meet Friday to elect a commodore for the coming year. Present commodore, Dr. W. L. McFarland, read the annual financial report and members enjoyed a spaghetti dinner prepared by chef Eddie Heath.

Seeking federal aid

First step taken to new economic status

In an attempt to have the county re-classified into a lower economic bracket to qualify for more federal aid of one type or another the County Development Organization has up-dated its Overall Economic Development Program.

The program, a prerequisite to any federal aid, apart from showing current conditions within the county, outlines problem situations and provides plans for their correction.

Hancock, prior to the arrival of National Aeronautics and Space Administration, was qualified to receive various federal grants and loans from the Office of Economic Development under its per capita income level. This income was, at that time, below state normals. High construction worker salaries and other similar space oriented worker wages raised the county income picture resulting in a loss of federal eligibility.

Since the test facility has now leveled off in numbers of employees and above only a portion of these live in the county the county development organization is once again trying to qualify the county under the per capita income requirement as well as under various other headings.

A printed version of the report was delivered Friday by Thomas Loftin, resource development specialist, Department of Extension, Mississippi State University, to the organization meeting in the Agricultural Center.

The report, completed in early summer, was originally sent to various state and federal agencies to receive their endorsement. The Loftin version, edited and printed by his department, contains a sampling of these endorsements.

The organization was formed by Robert Lauderdale, chairman, after he was appointed to the position by Wilson Wehre, chairman of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Co-sponsors of the project.

Other than Lauderdale the organization is headed up by G. O. Swords, secretary, and directors, John W. Smith, Donald H. Landry, Glendal Salter, Norton Haas, Leo W. Seal, Jr., W. Ray Gordon, Elliot Casanova and Miss Shirley Shaw.

In its report the organization states it has secured facts concerning the human and natural resources of the county, analyzed their statistics of productivity, visualized some opportunities and improvements and listed some goals that the committee feels can and should be reached.

The report covers the county and its economy, location, history, topography, climate, population detail, labor statistics, tics, natural resources, community facilities, hospital and medical facilities, accommodation available in hotels, motels and restaurants; churches, libraries, civic and fraternal organizations, post office details, water and sewerage systems, beautification programs, education, transportation and communications.

It breaks down detail on fuel and power, recreational facilities, agriculture, home economics, youth organizations, and provisions for senior citizens. In conclusion it gives problems, goals and plans for the future of most of these things.

In illustration of statistics the report contains 16 full page maps and 49 tables.

Committees, with names of chairman first, are J. Norton Haas, Jr., Charles F. Carter, Seal, Dr. A. K. Martinolich, Jr., Casanova, Industrial, Gordon, Seal, Mrs. Frank Klefer, community facilities, H. H. Shattuck and A. H. Gregory, utilities, Larry Mathis, Mrs. Jeanne D. Williams, J. L. Martin, Ezell Lee, Lance Lumpkin, John D. Rutherford, Jr., Rev. ### SPORTSMAN OF WEEK

Al Mercier is another of our expert fishermen. He does any kind of fishing and catches his share of fish.
He prefers casting for bass.
When it comes to fishing
he's always ready to go.

Winter hasn't really arrived but some ducks and geese are being killed and fishing has been fairly good. Both fresh and salt water. Speckles have been caught up Jordan River by trotting and with live shrimp.
They are running rather small with a few large ones being thrown in. Green trout are still hitting popping bugs and the Ra-bel and Repalla casting baits.
There have been too low for excellent fishing.

Trotting for bass is improving and with colder weather
they should hit under water baits.

We don't hear much about it, but there are a lot of deer
killed right here in Hancock County. Deer hunting has been a favorite sport with many of our local hunters for years. It's different from most kinds of hunting, requiring skill and the know how to out-smart this rather large animal. Woods hereabout are full of deer and it is not unusual to see one while fishing in this section.
Only bucks can be killed. Deer are also hunted with dogs. Deer populations have increased in the state and to protect this deer hunting will also increase.

Snipe and rails (marsh hons)
are not hunted as they were in years gone by. Both birds are good eating. Both are found along the banks of bayous and furnish some good shooting. The snipe is one of the fastest flying birds and are a hard target to hit. Snipe rises straight up from the ground. It is best to wait until they level off before shooting. A good place to find snipe are on burns.

The quail season in Mississippi opened Dec. 1. Reports of some good hunts have been received from our local quail hunters including Richard Matheny with Merchants Bank who owns a beautiful bird dog and kills his share of these prized birds. Dick hunts from around Collins where quail hunting has been tops and still is. There are a lot of quail right here in our own back yards.

Warren Roudsda, M.C.
(Mutt) Carroll and K. S. Elliott, guests of Tony Enterante, and Luke Elliott took home with them some beautiful bull heads caught at Leesville. The fish weighed from 12 pounds up. The party also caught some large speckles. All three are from Monroe, La. They were all high in their praises for fishing in this section of the country.
Another trip is in the making.

George H. Best and his wife, Verna, are ardent hunters and love to fish. They have been doing pretty good catching species of the finny tribe. It's true, George admits, that his wife catches more fish than he does.

Peter Garcia, known to his friends as Just Pete, says ba-sides fishing, his favorite sport is sticking flounders and picking up soft crabs. There are still some flounders waiting to be caught. Better get out the old light, Pete.

Nick Schneider, George Lewis and Adam Larmer have been having some real fishing trips aboard George's boat, The Morning Star. This threesome is hard to beat when it comes to catching salt water fish. They say they should have more time to go after them. Too much work.

Trappers in Louisiana, our neighboring state, are having a good season so far. Trapping opened on Dec. 1 and includes nutria, mink, beaver, muskrat, otter, raccoon, opossum and skunk. It is not uncommon to run across these animals out in the marshes while fishing and hunting.

Did you know that each year unknown numbers of birds and game animals become "crippling losses"? According to Billy Joe Cross of the Game and Fish Commission a large percentage of crippling losses can be eliminated.
Hunters should have a thorough knowledge of their weapon and shells distance capacity. Don't shoot game out of range. You can't eat game you only wound.

The third part of the dove season in Mississippi opens on Dec. 22. One of the main things that hunters should keep in mind when they are hunting private property is to respect the land owner's fences. Another, watch out for cattle. Be sure you see and know what you are shooting at. Close all gates and don't shoot toward houses. Peppering roof tops with shot gets pretty annoying. Act like a sportsman and you will be welcome again
by accommodating land owners.

The age of doves is determined by checking the secondary wing feathers according to the Fish and Game Commission.
There are some fishermen
who want to catch "big fish".
Big fish as they call them can be caught out by the oil rigs
at Empire, Grand Isle, Hope and in Louisiana and at Chandeler Island in Mississippi.
Trips to these places can be made on charter boats. Contact the skipper of those boats and

Sylvester recalls early days of WU

There has always been a lot of work and too little time to do it in, Albert James Sylvester, 66, known in Hattiesburg
as Mister Western Union, said
after announcing his retirement
this month.

Sylvester was born and raised
on Blue Meadow Road in Bay St. Louis and broke in with Western Union as a messenger boy here in 1920 and six months later became manager at Oxford
where he was the company's youngest operator - manager at 19.

His retirement became effective on Dec. 1 after 47 years, nine months and two weeks. He was urged by fellow workers to stick it out a little longer and receive a gold watch for 50 years service but Sylvester pulled out a color photo of a bigmouth bass he had caught and remarked "I already have a good watch". He said he plans to continue living in Hattiesburg

and expects to do more fishing,
"but not by a watch".

Things were different in Syl-vester's younger days and the company moved him around considerably in Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Florida
and elsewhere. His work varied and he was well known to many newspaper men. At times he was sent to Florida to cover big league spring training camps.
He has also sent out just about any kind of message one could imagine from stories of tornades and hurricanes to lynchings and murders but newsmen recall he was never too busy to be courteous when asked to rush
a dispatch.

Hancock JPs attend class

All six justices of the peace from Hancock County have been attending special training sessions at the University of Southern Mississippi being instructed by personnel from the attorney general's office.

Those present are Lester
Hoyer of Pearl River, Beat 1;
Bobby McQueen of Flat Top,
Beat 2; Larry Charles Ladner,
Beat 3; A. J. Perkinson, Beat 3; Frank Selph, Kline, Beat 4; and Nellius C. Rhodes and Forest J.
Necaise, both of Bay St. Louis,
Beat 5.

Subject material covered in the classes include jurisdiction, evidence, constitutional and property law contracts and process and pleadings.

Heading the four-day program is Assistant Attorney General R. Hugo Newcomb.
At the completion of the second session Thursday, the JPs who represent a total of 26
counties will receive certificates of attendance. To qualify for the necessary document, the JPs have to attend all 18
classes in the two-day session.

They will give you all information necessary including the cost. Personally we are satisfied with big speckles, red fish and bass caught in our own rivers and bayous. Believe it or not, small fish are best for eating.

Emile Schindler winks his eye and smiles when one speaks of catching oysters. Emile says it's not time yet to get them.
Waiting for that trip, Emile.
John Sellers loves his fishing, floundering and what have you. John puts to go use his time off. He catches his share of fish, too.

How many towns in Mississippi are under Commission Form
8 (On the books more than 50 years).

Why was this fact omitted in "Ad"?
We are satisfied to leave this to your judgment.

Are Mayor and Commissioners really concerned about the BOND ISSUE
or COUNCIL MANAGER?

By actual count from "Ad" 558 words were devoted to Council-Manager and 90 words devoted to Bond Issue.

Under Council-Manager form, will present City Officials draw the same pay until the end of present term?

CALL THE ELECTION and should Council-Manager form be adopted by the voters - your Committee will assume the responsibility of requiring the reduction of the pay of the present Council and employment of the New City Manager.

IT HAS JUST BEGUN! Your Committee had not anticipated any "easy way" to present form of government, but we assure you, the citizens of Bay St. Louis, that your support in this fight for better government will be worth your time and effort.

FORWARD WITH YOUR COMMITTEE.

Last call for entries in Yule lighting contest

Next Tuesday, Dec. 19, is the final date to enter Bay-Waveland Garden Club's annual Christmas lighting contest. Because of many inquiries last year when the residential competition was not held, two classifications have been restored for homes this year—over-all and doorways only. Holly wreaths will be awarded those two winners.

The club's traveling plaques will be given again this year for the best business display.

All those interested in entering the contest should notify the garden club, giving their name and street address. The following blank may be used.

Nominators named for Pink Ladies

Mrs. Joseph E. Viguerie, president of the Hancock General Hospital auxiliary, appointed Mrs. C.C. McDonald as chairman of the nominating committee at last Thursday's meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Marochino and Mrs. Roy I. Dennis were elected by members to serve with Mrs. McDonald.

Mrs. Ben Hill presented a check from an anonymous donor earmarked for part to be given to the memorial fund and part to the general fund.

The need for hot water bottle covers was cited and members voted to make them.

Mrs. McDonald, Candy Stripper, advisor, said Candy Stripper will sing Christmas carols outside the hospital and at the county home Thursday before Christmas.

Mrs. A. S. Klotz, gift shop chairman, reported signs telling about the gift shop are on display in the hospital lobby.

Anastasia judged best

Miss Tiemann, Pete Chapman win Little Theater 'Louies'

Four out of five Louie Awards, Bay St. Louis Little Theater Oscars, went to persons who participated in Anastasia, judged the season's best production, Thursday at the annual awards dinner at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Pete Chapman and Jewel Tiemann captured the best actor and actress awards, both for their leading roles in Anastasia, Capt. Harold Powell for leading male supporting role and Burt Barrett, director's award, also for Anastasia.

Leading female supporting role was won by Olive McKenna for her part in Barefoot in the Park.

Special awards and lifetime memberships went to Norman L. Carter, Mrs. Frank Klotz and Philip Allison in appreciation of their continued support of Little Theater, and untiring efforts in the promotion and participation in every facet of play production. Other awards for special services went to Capt. Powell and Mrs. E.C. Samuel for their contributions to the theater.

Awards were made by Mrs. Rona de Montuzin and Joseph Marochino.

Pro-dinner music was provided by George Wodomeyer and Henry Holtmann who accompanied the songs and comedy of Gerri Koye, Gulf Coast night club entertainer. Charlie Bryan of radio station WWL served as emcee.

Blue and silver club decorations were provided by Mrs. Cal Smith and C.E. Liroto.

St. Clare's, St. Rose win forensic contest

Two area schools, St. Clare's, Waveland, and St. Rose, Bay St. Louis, took top honors Saturday at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior Forensic League, Western Division, meeting at St. Stanislaus College.

Other schools participating were Annunciation, Kiln, Our Lady of the Gulf, St. Stanislaus, St. Paul's, St. Thomas, Lizzana Elementary, Jeff Davis Elementary and Long Beach Junior High.

St. Clare's won on the basis of points received for a third place in poetry and two seconds and a third in dramatics, all in Division one. St. Rose qualified for their Division Two title on the basis of a points earned by winning third in poetry and a second in dramatics.

CYO sets dance, seeks toys for needy children

The Catholic Youth Organization of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish will sponsor a dance from 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday in the OLG cafeteria. The Blue Dimensions will furnish music and admission will be $1.25 per person.

The CYO will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the parish hall to complete plans for attending a movie in New Orleans Wednesday.

The group is now collecting toys to be distributed at Christmas to needy children in this area.

Anyone having toys to donate should contact members or take them to the rectory.

A turkey is a turkey ... not really!

Take A&P "Super-Right" Turkeys, for example. Because we understand how important the turkey is to your dinner, we do everything possible to be sure there's nothing better than "Super-Right" Turkeys.

We take care in selecting the growers from whom we buy. To assure perfect turkeys, we buy only U.S. Inspected Grade "A" birds. To assure tenderness, we buy only young turkeys from this year's flock. Because we care so much about "Super-Right" Turkeys, we know you'll like them better—even at a premium price. So we're offering you DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK* if you don't like everything you think it should be.

Now, if you know you can't raise on the turkey, you'll understand why it's so important.

It's because A&P is a store for all holiday needs.

And you're satisfied because we guarantee everything we sell, no matter who makes it.

For this week to give A&P a try*

AN APPEAL

to all the THINKING People of Hancock County and City of Bay St. Louis, in particular

(Regardless of Race, Color or Creed)

The economy of this country we all know is at an all time high, yet how many people of this area and Bay St. Louis in particular fully realize and appreciate the enviable position we are in as a result of the "God given natural resources and our strategic location".

Bay St. Louis is the western gateway to "Golden Gulf Coast" which is truly coming into its own. Pascagoula, with its grain elevators and port facilities and the location of the largest ship yard in the western hemisphere, Biloxi with its tremendous military installation, Gulfport with its newly acquired "Seabee Base" with a population of some 8500 servicemen, plus the recently acquired exclusive contract for banana import of the Standard Fruit Co., as well as the Edgewater Mall which compares with any in the entire area (125,000 came to see the arrival of Santa Claus, 3 weeks ago).

All of these facilities and assets are within minutes of Bay St. Louis.

On the other side of Bay St. Louis we have the NASA MTF facilities and the NASA Michoud facility as well as the "Greater New Orleans Area" (which itself is bursting at the seams).

WAKE UP - DO NOT EVER THINK BAY ST. LOUIS WILL NOT PROGRESS. THE ONLY CONCERN IS THE DEGREE OF PROGRESS.

No One Group can hold back Bay St. Louis.

We in Bay St. Louis are presently and have been undergoing growing pains. Many of us feel the pains have been excessive and prolonged. This is all the more reason why we should be more determined than ever to make certain that we put our shoulders to the wheel under the banner of GREATER DEGREE OF PROGRESS.

Today we are faced with vital issues upon which hangs the continued progress of Bay St. Louis.

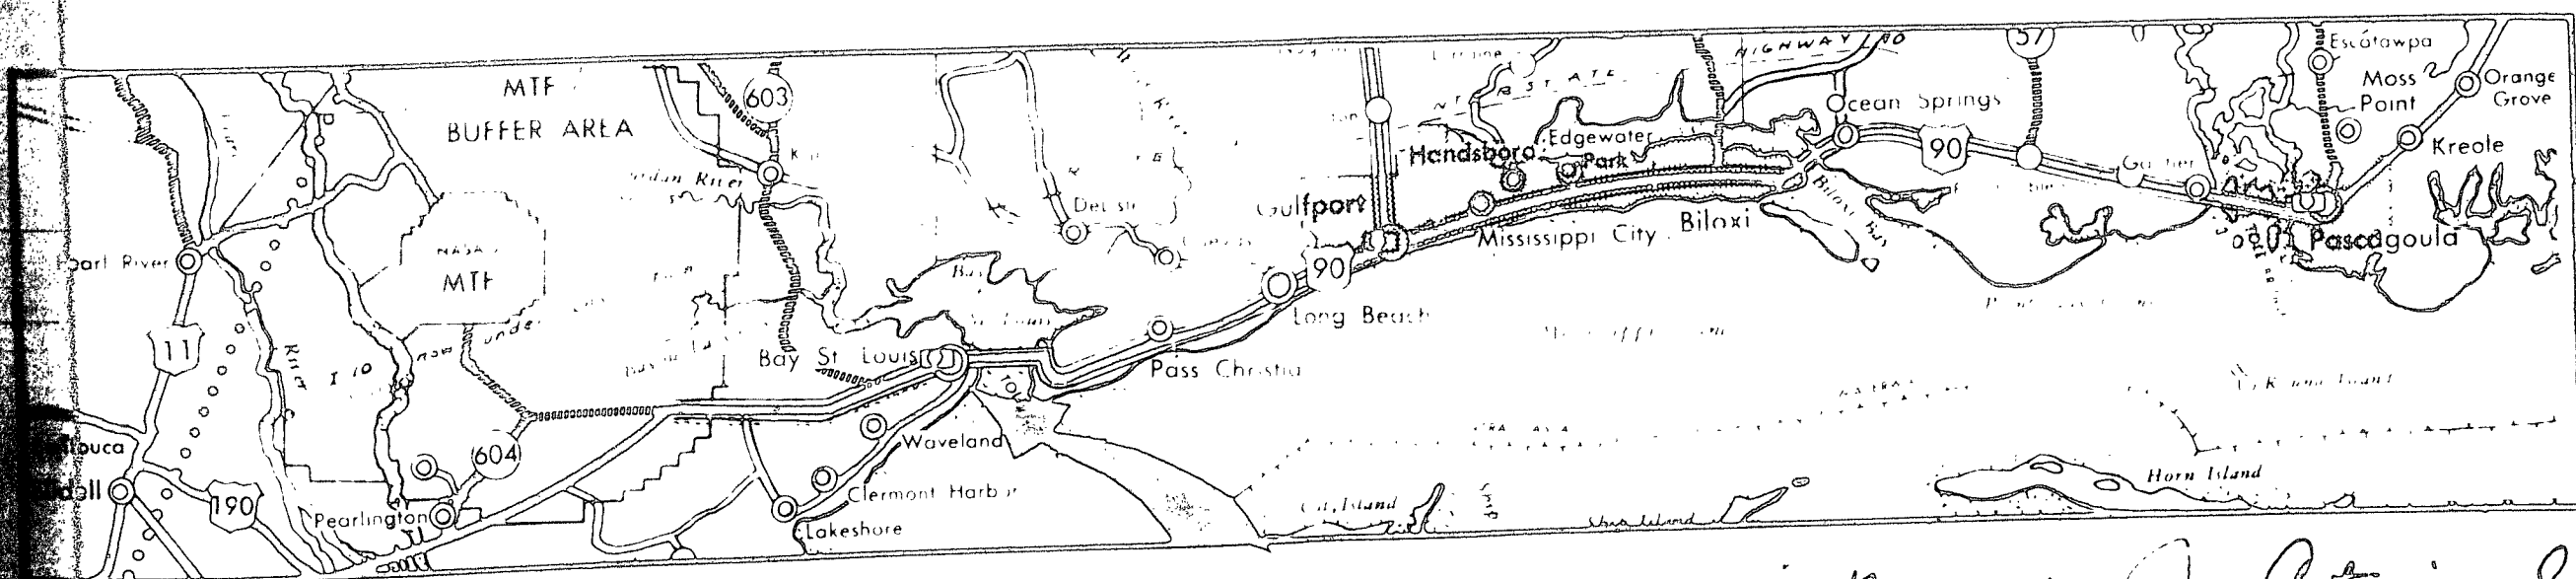

In these issues we appeal to your sense of responsibility towards the community. Let not your judgment be swayed by political or personal considerations, but solely on the basis of what is best for Bay St. Louis.

DANGER

1. NEGATIVE THINKING.
2. POLITICAL BICKERING & CONNING.
3. COMPLACENCY.

ACTION!

1. POSITIVE THINKING & PLANNING.
2. UNSELFISH COOPERATION AND HARMONY BETWEEN POLITICAL FACTIONS.
3. PARTICIPATION BY ALL THINKING PEOPLE.
4. COOPERATION BETWEEN ALL SEGMENTS OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

Delacroix tops Kitten scoring at St. Martin

Not to be outdone by Bay
High's variety Tigerettes, coach Thomas Pitts' junior high girls have compiled a 3-1 record
this year, their latest victory being St. Martin when they defeated 34-27 Monday night at St. Martin.

But the junior high boys had a stalling quarter in the second half of a double-header
and lost 24-27, Roger Mayo scoring 13 points, Jimmy Kemp and Larry Lee 1 each and Alvin Miller 2.

The junior high girls led throughout but really poured it on in the final frame scoring 14 of their 35 points in that starza. Donna Delacroix scored with 19, Donna Stanleyfelt 1, Betty Layne 6, and Susan Tursley 1 free throw. Leading the defense was guard Susan Ladner. Others seeing action were Cheryl McCullough, Shelly
Johnston, Marilyn Garcia, Mimi
Vaughn and Nancy Bilke.

Hancock tourney entrants rattle 10th annual netters

There weren't any Mike No-ralsos around this year and all three county entrants in the 10th annual Gulfport Invitational Tournament got bumped but not before giving everyone a lot of trouble. Bay High was defending champion and Redemptorist of New Orleans is the new champion.

Louie Ladner and the Hancock North Central Hawks
whipped a lot of good competition before being forced out in the quarter-finals by Hattlesburg, 81-80, Friday night.

Ladner, being named to the all-tournament team after the finals
Saturday night.

A cold third quarter in which they scored only 5 points proved the Hawks' undoing but they were coming on strong and might have won with a few more seconds. HNC came within one point four times in the final four minutes but five free throws
by Hattiesburg's John Freeman held them back. Louie and Eddie Ladner each scored 17 points,
Lyle Moran, 17.

Quarter scores:
HNC 12 15 11 28 - 66
H 13 15 11 22 - 61

St. Stanislaus also got spearheaded by the strong Gulfport
East Vikings in the quarterfinals mostly because of a cold third quarter. The Vikings led throughout the first half but a field goal by Vaughn Arceneaux of Stanislaus tied the score at 25-25 at halftime.

Quarter scores:
SE 13 15 11 18 - 54
SS 11 14 4 13 - 42

Mike Meyers led the Rockachaws with 15 points, Mike Ge-

Bay High's Tigerettes upped their season record to 8 wins and 2 losses by handing Pass Christian's girls their first defeat of the season 51-48 Friday night in the Tigerhome. The Pirates are 5-1.

Anthony Ladner recorded the night's most thrilling shot
when he sank a field goal with 15 seconds left in the game to give the Tigers a 47-46 victory in the second half of the Gulf Coast Conference twin bill.

Tigerette coach Billy Sills had commented prior to the Pass Christian game that "We'll find out what they're made of" and the girls came through like the champs they are, headed by Ann Perkins who amazed the spectators with a 37-point scoring performance.
Marilyn Cuevas was high for the Pass girls with 23.

In the boys' game, Pass
Christian led most of the way
holding quarter leads of 18-12, 25-22 and 39-32 but the Tigers gradually closed the gap in the final frame. Ladner topped the scoring with 21 followed by Mike Benigno with 13, Forrest
Pavolini hit 21 for the Pirates.

Bay High was to entertain Hancock North Central Monday night, then hit the road for three games, the 17th at Stone, 18th at Ocean Springs and 19th at St. Martin, before knocking off for the holidays.

meil got 9, Weldon Frommeyer
7, and Sylvan Ladner 8.
In the opening round Wednesday underdog Bay High came through with a mighty effort against Gulfport East and almost caught the Vikings near the finish but finally succumbed 42-45. After trailing by 14 points
the Tigers rallied and knotted
the score at 16-16 with 4:32 minutes left in the game on a tap-in by Jerry Johnson. Anthony Ladner was the game's highest scorer with 22 points.

Quarter scores:
GH 17 12 12 4 - 45
BH 13 13 14 4 - 42

Also in opening round play
North Central defeated Passagoula
45-44 on a free throw by Louie Ladner with one second remaining in the game. He was also the scorer with 18 points.

Stanislaus defeated Moss
Point 47-47 with Frommeyer hitting for 19 points and

CARSON BRIDGES AND FRIEND STAND BY NEW TRUCK PURCHASED THROUGH CLIFF MARTIN

Carson Bridges of Tangipahoa, La., says the news of Gerry Lane's spectacular deals has traveled all over the country. When Carson heard of deals and outstanding service all customers receive at Gerry Lane Chevrolet, he decided to drive over and find out for himself. He found it was not just talk as Cliff Martin gave him the best deal on his new truck that he could have found anywhere.
